The President's Condition.

President Garfield is in a very dangerous condition, and the probability is that he will yet succumb to the wound of the 2d of July. In fact, it would surprise no one who has carefully considered the little truth that has been let out by the attending physicians, to hear of his decease before this week is out. Yet we can all hope for the best-and that "hope against hope," is about all that is left for us. The triumph of the assassin is almost assured.

The Republican scored a big point last Monday in the Louderman murder the 9th inst., on the street in the full glare of the electric light at the Luclede glare of the electric light at the Laclede hotel, and the murderer, or murderers, Julia Baker. The police went to work on the case at once, enue of Iron county. Missouri, and files and made several arrests; but, up to among other things that the defendants Monday, despite their utmost efforts, are non-residents of the State of Missouri the officers of the law could get no clue and cannot be summoned in this action to the murderer. Mr. W. V.
